Good Morning Community Partners:

In partnership with Saints Peter and Paul School, your local government representatives, and South Bay Center for Counseling, we bring forth, Know Your Rights, an event that will bring knowledge and empowerment to our immigrant families. We are working together to bring incredible resources to our most vulnerable population, reminding them that their local government representatives are here to serve and protect their human rights. Our goal is to provide basic Know Your Rights immigration information, individual legal consultations, and guardianship and legal custody consultations that will assist them in these confusing and fearful times.

This event is brought to you by the following representatives and organizations:

Congresswoman Nanette Diaz Barragan, 34th Congressional District
Assemblyman Mike Gipson, 64th Assembly District
Mayor Eric Garcetti, City of Los Angeles
Councilman Joe Buscaino, City of Los Angeles, 15th District
i Heart Wilmington, SBCC

We are especially grateful to Saints Peter and Paul School for hosting us and Providence Little Company of Mary, Legal Aid, National Immigration Law Center, and Bet Tzedek for the time, commitment, and wealth of services they will provide on April 1st. Please advise families that one on one services will be available on a first come, first serve basis.

We thank you for your continued partnership and hope to see you on the 1st!

Best,

--
